

Laminated Badges

Laminated plastic badges allow for a vivid, full color design and are protected by lamination to make them long-lasting and durable. At a thickness of a credit card they are the perfect solution for special events, seminars and shows, photo ID's, or a traditional name badge.

Remember to account for your future needs and utilize our Premier Online Badge Release Program at badgewarehouse.com. Look to the catalog or website for additional information about this program.

Washington

Full color with photo and three lines of personalization. .030" white gloss laminated plastic (credit card thickness).

Dallas

Full color with three lines of personalization. .030" white gloss laminated plastic (credit card thickness).

Nashville

Full color two sides, with three lines of personalization on one side only. .030" white gloss laminated plastic (credit card thickness).